

CORI MACKIE

m: 808.375.1820 cori.mackie@icloud.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HONOLULU MUSEUM OF ART, HONOLULU, HI, JANUARY 2024 – AUGUST 2025

SENIOR PHILANTHROPIC OFFICER

- Designed and executed a comprehensive advancement donor engagement strategy, strengthening participation, increasing revenue and expanding engagement across individual, corporate and foundation audiences.
- Collaborated with senior leadership to align donor interests with institutional priorities, created targeted engagement opportunities that supported funding goals.
- Curated and led high-impact cultivation and engagement events, improving donor retention and raising contributions while reinforcing institution and mission in the community.
- Established a metrics-based donor and stewardship frameworks to track and improve fundraising effectiveness.
- Contributed to development of campaign strategies, donor communication and multi-channel outreach.
- Identified and created data for donors through the giving pipelines, supported consistency from entry-level participation to major donor.

HONOLULU MUSEUM OF ART, HONOLULU, HI, MARCH 2014 – JANUARY 2024

RETAIL MANAGER

- Developed revenue growth strategies across retail and wholesale operations, managed budgets, forecasting, P&L performance.
- Conceptualized and executed innovative merchandising and visual merchandising plans based on rotating exhibitions and data informed customer engagement.
- Established performance metrics for member and visitor service standards through sales training and staff development, improving retention and overall satisfaction.
- Created and managed a marketing and promotions calendar, including events, pop-ups tailored to members and optimizing new opportunities.
- Built new channels and expanded strategic partnerships and relationships to increase revenue and broaden customer retention

RETAIL THERAPY, HONOLULU, HI, NOVEMBER 2007 - JANUARY 2020

PRESIDENT/OWNER

- Advised retail and commercial clients on business strategy, brand positioning and customer engagement, driving increased revenue and operational performance.
- Acquired and fortified relationships with business owners to increase their profitability.
- Developed strategies for business and visual standards for tenants in alignment with mall property standards.
Led cross functional projects and events, including large scale installations, events and activations, ensuring timely execution and high0quality delivery.

PRADA HAWAII CORP, MARCH 2003 - MARCH 2007

GENERAL MERCHANDISE MANAGER

- Directed regional merchandising strategy across seven boutique locations, driving consistent revenue and growth.

- Planned and coordinated new location openings, merchandising, managing operations, and staffing.
- Designed new sales and training manuals for 100+ employees, focused on maximizing customer service and sales in a constantly changing environment; implemented markers to track client retention.
- Administered regular operations, including corporate job description and operational guideline creation, reporting, budget/plan development and realization, internal communication improvement, and sales and inventory analysis (e.g. Asia Pacific, Italy).

EDUCATION AND CREDENTIALS

BACHELOR OF ARTS (B.A.) IN ENGLISH

University of Hawaii at Manoa, Honolulu, HI

VOLUNTEERISM

- Board of Friends of East West Center
- Board Member PULS Pop up lab for Sustainability